The Champagne Girls Sipping Champagne

Shiri and Ron Richardson

“Calendar Girls” Calendar Coming!

Oh, you're all in for a wonderful treat! The Champagne Girls' 2010 Calendar is in the shooting, and it sports such beautiful themes. Sexy Delilah with “sparklers” (We all know that Delilah sets off fireworks with her fiery dancing!); Beautiful Marissa holding a bushel of apples; gorgeous Ariel posing as a “flower child;” Jameela, RaEm, Artemis, and Giata in exotic settings; and troupe shots with the Christmas theme and Hula theme. The exact date of availability and purchase price of this creative calendar will be announced via an email sometime by mid-June.

Upcoming Shows This Summer

During the summer, the gals will be performing at Arbor Court in Wayne, on Sunday, June 14TH (Flag Day theme); The Veterans Hospital in Scranton, PA on Saturday, July 11TH, as back-up for Ron Richardson; at the State Fair on Friday, August 7Th (Some of Shiri's dancers will be doing the Can-Can!) and at their summer Charity Recital, “Rock N' Roll Luau” on Sunday, August 9TH, to raise money for the Sussex County Food Pantry. Please show your support of their ongoing “Motion With A Mission Program,” by attending.

Welcome New Recruits!

Please welcome our newest Champagne Girls, “Marissa,” and “Jameela.” Their biographies and photos are now posted on the website. Both ladies will have featured pages in the 2010 Calendar, so you'll get to know them (if you buy the calendar!)

Bake Sale

From June 26TH to July 31ST, the gals will be selling “baked goods” each Friday evening at the Sparta Cultural Affairs Committee's Summer Concert Series to raise money for St. Jude's Partners in Hope, which helps fund care for children with cancer. Please stop by to enjoy the concerts and also purchase some baked goodies.
